

Psychosocial & Emotional

- Denial of problems
- Poor self-awareness
- Gets frustrated easily
- Feeling overwhelmed
- Difficulty inhibiting oneself
- Changes mood rapidly
- Fluctuating emotions
- Exhibits poor emotional control
- Increased emotionality
- Lacks insight into own abilities & behaviors
- Can't see others' viewpoint (egocentricity)
- Isolates self
- Acts impulsively or takes too many risks
- Is apathetic
- Difficulty interpreting social cues
- Cannot understand humor or "size up" situations
- Behaves inappropriately
- Seems unmotivated and passive
- May not be able to correct behavior even after feedback
- Gets stuck on one thought or behavior (Perseveration)
- Acts fearful or fearless
- Can get angry out of proportion to cause
- Gets depressed
- Laughs or cries for no apparent reason
- Experiences overwhelming sense of distress or grief
- Changing of personality
- Loss of self
- Uses alcohol or drugs to deal
- Gets anxious
- Doesn't feel worthwhile
- Appears agitated or irritable
- Has inappropriate manners & mannerisms
- Is demanding
- Can be verbally or physically aggressive
- Can be socially inappropriate, awkward or immature